MR Thy theatrical going public of New York, Brooklyn, Williamsburg, Jersey City, Newark, Hoboken, and the adjoining cities and towns, are respectfully informed that the above named artists are now periorfining in Boston, where they are nightly greated with crowded and delighted audiences. The engagement of this gifted and famous couple at the Howard Athenaum has proved a most extraorder has the coss—never before short the succession of througed and brilliant assemblages, seldom if ever before has its time honored walls echoed with plandits more heartily bestowed or richly merited. There can be no mistake in the genuine success of the Williamses and their abilities, which can at this season of national excitement command the genuine success of the Williamses and their abilties, which can at this season of national excitement command the popular attention; and they may well claim from that the most flattering tribute which art could receive from popular appreciation.
